President's Message

So, what can be improved?

I believe our most important guild asset is its tradition of attracting exceptional women, and men, who have extraordinary talents. It is our members, past and present, who have shaped our organization.

In my March article, I stated “We are a great guild that is aging, and we are not taking advantage of the experience, talent and potential of our members because we do not want to change what we do.” I would like to expand that idea and provide some personal insights that may or may not sound familiar to you.

Case in point is the process by which members are selected for guild positions. When I first joined the guild, I had no clue how these positions were filled. There were no signups or elections so how did it work? Well, I gradually realized that there was no opportunity to volunteer for a particular job because that decision was at the discretion of the incoming president. I’m not sure why this system was instituted but I have a guess. It was, and still is used to control who is and isn’t acceptable. This kind of nepotism has become a very efficient and effective means of minimalizing access to guild positions.

So, what are the results of this antiquated attitude? If you recall, I included a “Volunteer Questionnaire” with your renewal forms in order to provide members with an opportunity to sign up for positions they would like to do, and my hope was that this form would serve as a pool of potential workers for the next president. However, the outcome was disappointing. 58% of members did not respond. Why? Was this simply laziness? Or indifference, burnout, or something else. I don’t have the answer, but this I do know; this lack of commitment is rampant. In the past, a core group of members operated a very efficient guild while a much larger group enjoyed the benefits of these labors. Unfortunately, times have changed and the core is aging. Members must start taking responsibility for operating this guild or we will not be able to continue.

I welcome your comments. I don’t need your name; send me an email or letter. I’m in the book.

Hi Valley Quilters!

I have had a busy month ordering the T-Shirts, Hoodies and Bags! It was fun, brought back all those years of working as a purchasing manager. The order should be picked up and ready for all of you by the guild meeting. Those few of you that order a 2XL or above will have to pay a little more for your order, $2.00 to $8.00, depending on how many X's are in your order.

As of the month we have 100 members in our guild. Please remember this is a closed meeting, so bring your friends next month ok! See you at guild.

Calling all quilters who want to learn a fun way to make beautiful Dresden quilts. Analei Belden will be joining us at our May 24 meeting for a lecture, and then you can try her exciting technique in the workshop on Wed., May 25. Cost is only $25 if we can get at least 13 people. We are more than half full now, so don't miss your chance to get your spot before it's too late! No kit is needed, but class fee must be paid at the meeting. We have lots of exciting presenters coming later in the year, with the next workshop scheduled on July 27. Make time in your busy schedules for the workshops; they are a great opportunity to expand your quilting skills. Please see me at our meeting for more information.

Security Quilt Report for March/April 2016

The March 28th Sew In was a big success and we would like to thank the 15 ladies to came to help. We worked on over 20 quilts. We still have quite a few that needs to be tied, so please join us on Monday mornings at Valley Wide from 9 am to 11 am. The next Sew In is tentative planned for June 20th which is the 3rd Monday of June.

The March 28th "sew in" enabled us to give 7 quilts to the San Jacinto police department and 6 quilts to the French Valley Police Department. French Valley called to thank us and let us know that they put the quilts into their officer's vehicles.

Two quilts will be given for two little boys who are going to make a six hour but trip to visit their Mother in prison just in time for Mother's day.

Fat Quarter Fun
 Jeani Campbell 951-925-9966

Our fat quarter draw will be a little different this year. Just to mix it up a bit we are going to give ALL fat quarters to one lucky lady. That will give the winner the opportunity to make a whole quilt from what she gets. Please remember to use only quality fabrics (the kind you would like to get).

Since I don't think you can do quilt related things without m&m's, there will be a package in each basket along with a book or magazine. I know some of these are open for interpretation. Just have fun with it.

April	pastel yellows and pinks
May	Cinco de mayo colors (fiesta)
June	Patriotic prints
July	Christmas prints - red
August	Beachy fabrics
September	Home spuns
October	Shades of orange, of course....and or stripes
November	teals and tans
December	dark blues
January	Children's prints
February	Primitive prints
