President's Message

I hope everyone is enjoying this beautiful fall weather before we know it the holidays will be here. I'm trying to do some of the projects that have been put on hold that I blamed on the heat, funny thing is I don't want to do them now either and I have nothing to blame that on. On that note I hope you are all finishing your quilts for the show, the application deadline is December 1st.

We have a great speaker coming this month and there are still a few places left for the workshop if you want to learn more. It is a time to really get to know the teacher and learn more of her techniques. This is our last workshop for the year.

Our guild lost another past member this month, Doris Fenstermaker. I have an article on her life if anyone would like to read it.

Words of wisdom: The more time (and money) you spend making a quilt for your son, the more likely it is it will end up as a dog bed cushion

Happy Fall!

COMING EVENTS - October and November

October: Our October meeting we will have Sandy Corbin as our speaker at the Tues Guild Meeting. Sandy will present "Let's Talk Borders" and will show us the many options and impact of "Borders" when we are creating our quilt projects. On Wed. Sandy will be teaching a quick and simple pattern that has a very creative border effect during a workshop at Valley Wide.

We still have room in the class so if you are interested, please contact me (951-765-8230) & will send you the supply list. Class fee is $30 and can be paid at Tues Guild Meeting.

November: Mary Myers will take us step by step thru the process of submitting your quilt(s) for display in the February 2023 Quilt Show. From filling out the application to picking up your quilt after the show. Mary will, provide extra focus & hints on options & requirements for the sleeve needed to hang your quilt. Bring your Questions!

Door Prizes

Suzanne Wade

It is definitely Craft Fair time of year, and who knows, you might win something terrific at the Guild's Door Prize table. It only takes one ticket to win, but at seven tickets for five dollars, it's almost free. Come join in the fun and mystery and help the Guild's coffers grow. Thanks for your tremendous support so far, and may we continue to grow.

Block of the Month

Edna Hornkohl

I will be out of town for the October meeting. Please bring your completed block to the next meeting or email me a picture and I will put your name in the drawing. eehornkohl@aol.com

2023 Quilt Show

Grace Ward and Kathy Ray

Wow! Our Quilt show is only 4 months away and we are working hard to make sure our show is organized. Remember to bring any item for the opportunity basket. If your friendship group is interested in preparing a basket, please let Linda Card or Johnnie D'Allessandro know. We have received more postcards to be shared. We are still in need of some more vendors for the quilt show. IF you have any contacts in the sewing world for a vendor who might be interested in our quilt show, please let Amy Mora know. Please be generous with your time for our quilt show, we are beginning signups in the October meeting, Kathy Barbay will soon be looking for signatures. Mary Myers and Sue Roberts are looking for those quilt applications for the show. Don't forget we need over 100 quilts and have only 91 members. We are looking for your quilts that have inspired you to sew. Think about what you would like to put in our consignment shoppe, as Pat Spurgeon and Janet Swindell will have packages ready for you at the September meeting. BE SEW EXCITED to help in our quilt show to INSPIRE others to join in the love of our craft.

2023 Quilt Show Acquisitions

Mary Myers and Sue Roberts

We need your Quilt for the quilt show. All the forms are on our web page. Please take time to read the instructions as you fill them out. As of this newsletter we only have 10 quilts. We need 120 more. The deadline is December 1st. Your quilt does NOT have to be finished by December 1st only the paperwork. You may bring your application to the next two meetings, or mail it to me at Mary Myers 25880 Interlechen Dr, Menifee, Ca 92586.
I am looking forward to a GREAT show this year.
