VOLUNTEER ANCILLARY GUILD POSITIONS

A brief description of “job descriptions” for ancillary positions

DOOR PRIZE DONATION:

Members are to bring a gift (sewing related” items, i.e. sewing magazines, quilt patterns, sewing notions, etc., wrapped in simple packaging) valued at $20 to use as a donation on their birthday month. Tickets are offered at the meetings for the birthday gifts that arrive by 9 am. At the end of the business portion of the meeting, tickets will be drawn.

DOOR PRIZE HELPERS: (2-3)

Assists coordinator with preparing prizes, handing out tickets & prizes as they are won.

FAT QUARTERS:

As members arrive @ meeting, they may bring one or more FAT QUARTERS to turn into the coordinator. The coordinator determines a monthly color /season theme which is listed in the directory. Each fat quarter equals one drawing entry. Names will be drawn for fat quarter bundles.

FLAG SALUTE:

As directed by Guild President, leads all in attendance at the Guild General Meetings, in the Flag Salute

FRIENDSHIP GROUP: Keeps a list of all Guild Friendship groups and has information available for anyone wishing to participate in a Friendship Group. (Friendship Groups are small groups of approx. 8-12 Guild members, who set up their group meetings where they work on joint projects together)

HOSPITALITY ASSISTANTS: (3-4)

Assists the Hospitality Coordinator in set up – serving & clean-up as needed for the refreshments served at the monthly General Meetings.

INFORMATION TABLE:

Keeps track of various flyers, cards, general information of interest regarding shows, programs, products from Guilds and Vendors in our general area. All current information is displayed on the table before the General Meetings and picked up at end of meeting.

SHOW-n-TELL:

At General Meeting, Coordinator prepares a list of members wishing to “show & share” projects they have, items of interest, etc. During the time, as noted on agenda, Coordinator calls each person on the list to the front of room to display their project. To expedite the show-n-tell, the coordinator will ask for the participants to line up with their quilt in the order they signed up on the list.

MINI WORKSHOPS:

Coordinator arranges and coordinates sign-ups for “In House” member workshops” with members who are willing to a “teach” a specific topic. Members who sign up for the workshop will pay $5 nonrefundable fee to attend. Workshops will be throughout the year.

CHALLENGE:

Coordinator selects a challenge. All members who sign up and participate in program determine their own color scheme and interpretation of the instructions as they are received. The completed challenge will be displayed at the December meeting. Depending on the challenge, there may be a prize based on members choice.

BOM – Block of the Month:

Coordinator selects a Quilt Pattern – and assigns a different block to be sewn each month. Creates and distributes the pattern and instructions for the “Month’s” selected block. Participants use monthly block patterns to create a block using any fabric color combination they choose. Each month participants are given credit for showing their complete quilt block to the coordinator. The complete BOM will be displayed at our February meeting and a prize drawing of participants will be held.

SUNSHINE & SHADOWS:

The coordinator keeps track of good news / sad news / general information regarding members. Send cards and notes on behalf of the Guild expressing our congratulations, cares & concerns.

RECOGNITIONS GIFTS: Works with President / Board arranging for gifts given in recognition for honorary position / completion of special project, etc.

RETREATS: Annual Event – Makes reservations with retreat location – handles sign ups – collects / pays funds – keeps communication open with all attendees.

SECOND TIME AROUND – Volunteers needed to help with pricing of donated items sold at our quilt show. The Standing Committee Chairperson will notify us of dates and times for pricing items.

SCHOLARSHIP ASSISTANTS: Assists Scholarship chairman with reviewing applications, selection and contacting scholarship winners and arrangements for awards presentation.

PHILANTHROPIC QUILT TICKET SALES: Handles Opportunity Quilt ticket sales by arranging for pickup of tickets, receiving funds and return of ticket stubs from members.

PHILANTHROPIC QUILT TICKET SALES WITH QUILT: Organizes the quilt being shown at many opportunities for the display and sale of tickets for the philanthropic Quilt. Make sure that the person showing the quilt has the quilt and quilt rack and there are plenty of postcards, business cards, tickets, cash box with seed money to give change and any other supplies needed.

TRIP ORGANIZER (Bus Trips): 2-3 times a year – selects destination – makes reservations – handles sign- ups and collection of funds – oversees transportation details.
